

Committee Opinion
July 17, 1972

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 217

REPORTING VIOLATIONS BY OTHER
ATTORNEY – CONFIDENTIAL
INFORMATION.

It is improper for an attorney to report to the Bar information concerning unethical conduct by another attorney when such information was obtained from a client in confidence and the client refuses to consent to the disclosure thereof [See II: DR:4-101(C)(1) and DR:1-103(A).]

Committee Opinion
July 17, 1972

Legal Ethics Committee Notes. – Rule 1.6(c)(3) requires that lawyers consult with their clients in these circumstances.